

MAJA POPOVIC

Managing Director

Maja Popovic is an experienced international Transport Planner and Modeler in the domain of the development of national, regional and urban multi-modal transport models, project management, transport infrastructure development, project evaluation, strategic plans, project and programs monitoring, institutional development and capacity building.

She has valuable experience regarding the legal, organizational and institutional aspects of transport infrastructure projects implementation in Serbia. Also, experience in preparation of technical documentation for transport projects in Western Balkans (IPF1, IPF3, IPF4 and IPF 5 projects).

Over 20 years she gained skills & experience in project appraisal and project management, gained in several countries (Western Balkans/JASPERS, EU). She has significant specific experience in the region, including Greece, Montenegro, BIH, Albania, Romania, North Macedonia, Serbia and Kosovo*.

Her professional focus is on transport planning and traffic modeling, including master plans development, transport plans, pre-feasibility and feasibility studies of railway and road infrastructure projects, environmental impact studies, city traffic management, public transport studies, development of transport models, traffic forecasts etc.

She is fluent in English, Serbian (mother tongue) and all languages of former Yugoslavia countries. Also speaks Russian.