

MIRKO BAJIC

Technical Director

With 35+ years active involvement in the field of transport planning Mirko Bajic is a highly experienced transportation planner/modeller leading worldwide a number of traffic and transport projects ranging in size and complexity.

He gained his experience in traffic engineering and transport planning working in Australia, Middle East and Balkan Countries.

Mirko's specialist skills include strategic transport modelling, micro simulation modelling, traffic analysis, impact assessment, prefeasibility and feasibility studies for infrastructure construction and rehabilitation, parking studies and traffic data analysis.

He is fluent in English, Serbian and all languages of former Yugoslavia countries.